 This fine collection was formed by the late Matthew Young, but has had many additions made to it since, amongst others, the Sixpence of May, 1690, stated in Lindsay's work on Irish Coins to be unique. Where there are several specimens of the same date, they are from different dies. It consists of 24 Crowns, 78 Half Crowns, 86 Shillings, and 39 Sixpences, and contains all the varieties mentioned by Lindsay, with the exception of 3 pieces.
